

County Government Literacy Quiz
NACCTFO Annual Meeting
July 11, 2019

It is quiz time! Don't use your phones to answer these questions, please. And also remember: Even though we are in Nevada, this is an exhibition, not a competition, so please no wagering. Answers will be revealed as the morning session progresses.

1. The American founding father most associated with county government is (circle one):
 - a. Alexander Hamilton
 - b. Alexis de Tocqueville
 - c. Thomas Jefferson
 - d. Dolly Madison

2. Which amendment or article in the U.S. Constitution specifically grants authority to local governments (circle one)?

3. Approximately how many elected officials are there in the United States?

4. You can run for election as dog catcher in the United States (circle one):
 - a. True
 - b. False

5. County elected offices are generally nonpartisan (circle one):
 - a. True
 - b. False

6. The county row office most prevalent across the U.S. is:
 - a. Tax Collector
 - b. Treasurer
 - c. Dog Catcher
 - d. Sheriff

7. Of the people registered for this conference at the close of registration (6/24/2019), what percent had the term "Treasurer" in the title of the office they held or in which they worked?

_____ %

8. Of the people registered for this conference at the close of registration (6/24/2019), what percent had the term "Collector" in the title of the office?

_____ %

9. What state has the most county treasurers?

10. Which state has the least county treasurers?

| GRADING SCALE | |
|----------------------|--|
| 9 or more correct | You probably embarrass your kids with your trivia knowledge and your willingness to share it |
| 6 – 8 correct | You meet the minimum requirements |
| 4 – 5 correct | Must be the jet lag |
| 3 or less correct | Sign up for my class at Wayne State, please! |